

E- Newsletter

Brussels, June 17 2004

Published by the ING EMPLOYEE BENEFITS GLOBAL NETWORK

ING Chile joins the Network

ING Chile signs up a partnership agreement with the ING Employee Benefits Global Network

ING Employee Benefits Global Network welcomes its new partner ING Chile.

ING Chile is a leading insurer in its market, whose membership of the ING Group is a strong financial guarantee. ING Chile has a particularly strong position in the area of Employee Benefits. The company is the third player in Pension business, has a second position as a Medical insurer and is the leader in the Life market. Furthermore, the company continues to innovate through its flexible approach and its worksite enrolment formulae.

ING Chile is the first ING business unit to join the ING Employee Benefits Global Network since the latter was rebranded. Its leading expertise and poolable products for Life, Disability and Medical coverage will significantly strengthen the position of the Network in South-America. We are convinced that the cooperation with our new partner will be successful!

If you are interested in learning more about ING Chile, please visit its website: www.ing.cl