ING Taiwan strengthens the presence of the Network on the Taiwanese market.

ING Taiwan has decided to join the ING Employee Benefits Global Network.

ING Taiwan is an innovative player in the Taiwanese market, whereas it can also rely on the financial stability of the ING Group. This new Network Partner considers Employee Benefits as one of its key markets. The company offers a series of poolable products in Group Life, Accident and Medical business. Through its innovative approach and broad product range, ING Taiwan has been able to grow consistently.

ING Taiwan is the first Asian ING unit to join the ING Employee Benefits Global Network since the latter was rebranded and its innovative approach and poolable products illustrate the Network's expansion in Asia.
