New International Sales Director joins the Network

The ING Employee Benefits Global Network has a new International Sales Director for the US Market.

Mr. Steve Barry will join our Network on June 1st as International Sales Director for the USA, based in Chicago. He has worked seven years for two competing networks and twelve years with a major consultancy firm. Steve will not only be a reinforcement of our sales capacity in the USA but also his technical background and experience will prove very valuable to the Network. The ING Employee Benefits Global Network welcomes this new colleague, who looks forward to a fruitful cooperation with all of you.
