New Network Partner in Sweden!

SEB Trygg Liv in Sweden has decided to join the ING Employee Benefits Global Network.

SEB Trygg Liv is part of the North European financial group SEB, offering its customers a complete range of financial solutions in the form of insurance and banking services.

In Sweden SEB Trygg Liv is the second largest provider of investment and risk products to group funds and schemes and also provides administration, actuarial and consulting services to the group retirement industry and payroll administration and money transfer services. Additionally the company provides underwriting and risk management to medical schemes.

With our new Partner coming on board, the ING Global Network has not only gained an appreciated Pension partner but also secured a pole position to develop and expand our joint portfolio in the sophisticated Swedish Employee Benefits market.
